

State Level Capacity Building Orientation programme for DMU personnel on Implementation of Livelihood Promotion Project through OFSDS- OMBADC

People living in and around forests are highly dependent on forest resources for their livelihood. In order to reduce dependency of the Poorest of Poor (PoP), socially vulnerable people and ST & SC community on forest resources and to improve the health of forest ecosystems, it is necessary to enhance and strengthen their Livelihood by providing them with a range of alternative livelihood options. Improving their skills and competencies and connecting them with various developmental programs can bring visible changes in their life.

The OFSDS- OMBADC Project is to be implemented with a view to mitigate the adversities faced by the forest fringe dwellers to some extent by providing them livelihood promotion opportunities.

It is proposed to undertake the orientation of the personnel of DMU, FMU & p-NGO of each project Division in order to make them conversant with the project objectives, goal, strategies, project components, activities, implementation modalities, roles and responsibilities of each stakeholders etc.

Objectives of the Capacity Building Orientation Programme:

1. To orient all the staff of five project Divisions and 25 Ranges on Project Goal, Objectives, Implementation Strategies and Project Components etc.
2. To promote clarity among all officials associated for better coordination and smooth implementation of the project.
3. To enable the establishment of linkages among the officials / professionals of OFSDS associated at all levels for promoting effective implementation.

Proposed Thematic Coverage:

- Overview of the Livelihood Promotion Project
- The key components of the Project, vis-a-vis timeline
- Roles and Responsibilities of various stakeholders in implementation of the Project
- Institutional Arrangement within the Project
- Collaboration with P. NGO: Roles and Responsibilities
- Community Mobilization & Institution Strengthening
- Training & Capacity Building

Duration of Training:

It is proposed to hold one day orientation online training programme for all the five Divisions. The exact date to undertake the online orientation session for all
